

24th Asia Pacific Youth Conference (APYC) 2018

Introduction

Trust in leadership worldwide is at an unprecedented low. It is perceived to be a landscape of self-interest, greed, bigotry, prejudice and sectarianism in the pursuit of power.

The ideals of compassion, respect, humility and the concept of upholding truth at any cost and being accountable have been bruised and battered so much that there exists a disconnect among people, and within them as well.

Competency without character leads to leadership failures. Together these qualities contribute greatly towards upholding truth and accountability. This is what builds credibility, congruency and enhances the trust factor so vital in all relationships.

There are signs from around the world reaffirming that people hold the power to change. The time is now; join the wave of change.

APYC 2018 aims to foster and sustain this change.

MRA/IofC MALAYSIA

MRA Initiatives of Change is an invitation to a life of commitment, a life of social responsibility, spiritual depth and moral integrity. It stems from the conviction that change in people starting with oneself is a logical key to change in the world. This is based on the belief that there is a source of wisdom available to all who will listen for it – to that inner voice that speaks in everyone's heart.

Every person is important and everyone has a part in renewing the spirit and lives of people around the world. This work of renewal starts with oneself. It is a process of personal inner transformation based on the disciplines of:

Regular times in silence

Values and standards of integrity

Restoring for the past

Working with others as agents for change

When people work together for change, teamwork grows and a process of wider transformation develops.

MRA/IofC is a Member of IofC International based in Switzerland.
